SINGING FOR EVERYONE!

CHOIRS, TEAM BUILDING, SINGING LESSONS...

"Det var motiverende å se hvor mye en gruppe kan lære på kort tid...
Vi sang jo riktig så bra etter en time velregissert trening med Bree!"

~ Karina Birkeland Lome,
Organisasjonsutvikler, Giensidige Forsikring ASA

Workplace Singing!

BREE SWITZER...

Choir director and Music teacher, Bree Switzer, took singing for granted until the age of sixteen, when her parents suggested she audition for a high school choir. Bree loved to sing, but did not think of herself as a "singer". To her surprise, she passed the audition and her membership in the choir over the next three years made high school a joyful experience. She found that when she sang for an hour in the morning, she almost always had a good day.

Now, 20 years later, Bree has made it her profession to help as many people as she can to benefit from the joy of singing in the way she has since that time.

Bree has studied voice with Canada's Allison Girvan and Cheryl Hodge, choir conducting with Danish-British composer and conductor Gregers Brinch, and Music Composition with film composer, Don MacDonald. She holds a Music diploma in composition, arranging and voice from Canada's Selkirk College.

Bree has been teaching, conducting and composing since 2001.

Bree's teaching style is warm and success oriented, rooted in the philosophy that success in singing comes most easily from a relaxed and happy environment.

TEAM BUILDING THROUGH SINGING

Morning singing, afternoon "choir", or a part of lunch-break!

Breathe out, take a moment during the work day when everyone is together, and no one talks about work. It is an amazing way to start the work day, or to take a breather in the middle of the day. Sing, laugh, and feel energized afterwards!
